THE ALEXANDER OF BUTTE AND ■ VIEGINIA ADVERTISEE will soon celbrate its centennial year. Sore tean three quarters of a century ago it grew into hie a creation of wants and needs of the people of this section of Virginia.

During all this period its prominent object has been to advance the interests of the people of whose life it is the daily chromote. Its fortune have been their fortunes; it has shared their prosperity and suffered in their disasters. Its inspiration has been the desire to forward too best interests of the community in which it is located, and its own prosperty is, as it has been purposely made, inseparable from that of the community it aims to represent. Venen they grow rich it hopes for a reward commonsurate with its labors. While they are poor it expects to work with them and for tham, expecting to make their success the measure of its own.

The past of the Gazette is offered as an index of its future. It has never taken to avail itself promptly of all the improvements which come with the greater growth and more extended ex perience of journalism. Every year REW FEATURES will be added.

THE GAZETTS MEANS TO BE THE NEWSPAPER OF VIRGINIA. It will furnish daily a complete account, with superfluides only lopped away, of all the current news of the As the interests of the people mainly centre a home, no pains will be spared to enronice all matters occurring in the city and neighborhood, carefully excluding unseemly expressions or gross narrative as unlit for a journal test in treasured at many thousand hearthstenes of Especial attention will be devoted to presenting, as well from original sources of intormation

as from its exchanges, the news of Virginia, es-pecially such as relate to the development of the resources of the State.
Its contiguity to Washington gives the Ca zette an early precedence over all the journals of the State in intelligence of the operations of the General Government, now of such vital importance to the people of the South. The proceedings of Congress, seedom so interesting as now, will be regularly reported in successive in for its columns, but all matters of especial afterest in Virginia will be given in detail, and the full text of all bills of locar interest with begiven. From the State Capital it will receive early and accurate accounts of the proceedings of the General Assembly and of all the operations of the State government likely to interest the peo-

In its Commercial columns the especial leature will be promptness and accuracy. The tarmers, drovers and commercial people of the State know they MAY DECEDO upon the Gazette.

Early and reliable reports of the Grain, Cattle, Grocery and other Markets will be surpished and the prices and position of the stocks, which are the subjects of business transactions in this ection of the country, excelling quoted. The continus: favors of these who have once used the Gazetie as an advertising medium is a warrant for saying that it pays to advertise in its columns. Never before aid it pay so well to tell the public what is for saie.
